GAME NOTES

- No. 3 Ohio State returns to Ohio Stadium for a 7:30 p.m. game Saturday against the Rutgers Scarlet Knights, coached by former Ohio State defensive coordinator Greg Schiano (2016-18).
- Ohio State is ranked No. 3 this week. The Buckeyes have been in the Top 5 of the national rankings for every game except two of Ryan Day's head coaching career, when the team was ranked No. 6. The Buckeyes are 18-1 all-time under Day.
- The Buckeyes have won 15 consecutive Big Ten Conference games and have outscored their opponents during this stretch, 702-285. Coach Ryan Day's Buckeyes are a perfect 12-0 vs. the Big Ten.
- Quarterback Justin Fields has been spectacular. He has completed 87.3 pct. of his passes - 48 of 55 - for 594 yards and six TDs with no interceptions. He has soared to No. 2 nationally in passing efficiency with a rating of 214.0
- Chris Olave and Garrett Wilson - with help from Fields - have become the first pair of Buckeye receivers to record 100-yard receiving games in consecutive games. Olave had 104 vs. Nebraska and 120 vs. Penn State. Wilson had 129 vs. Nebraska and 111 vs. Penn State.
- Ohio State is 6-0 all-time against Rutgers and 3-0 in Columbus, winning 56-17 in 2014, 58-0 in 2016 and 52-3 in 2018. The Buckeyes have scored at least 49 points in all six previous games.

BUCKEYES ON THE FRONT LINES

FRAN DORANDO STRONG

A two-time captain during her playing days as a member of Ohio State’s field hockey team, Fran Dorando Strong is still finding ways to help people after her athletic career has ended. Today, she’s doing it as an emergency room/trauma nurse in Geneva, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago.

Dorando Strong is the fourth former Ohio State student-athlete who shared experiences this summer on what it’s like to be working on the front lines during this global COVID-19 pandemic, and how her time as a Buckeye helped prepare her.

How did Ohio State and athletics prepare you for what you are dealing with?

“I knew being an athlete has always prepared me for the nursing and medical fields. Personally, it takes strength, flexibility, creativity, a mental toughness, and a passion to do what we do every day but you have to know how to lead and be a team player and that resonates during this time more than ever in health care.”

What has this pandemic been like for you?

“It’s been challenging and even scary at times knowing that every day we are putting ourselves potentially in harms way. However, I believe all of us who work in an emergency department love the environment and the challenges it presents. The pandemic has caused us to change our own practices in many different ways. We’ve had to constantly up our game in delivering excellent compassionate care while keeping up with ever changing treatment recommendations and best practices. Yet through all of this, I wouldn’t change what I do for a living!”

What encouraging words would you say to others on the front lines?

“THANK YOU! Keep doing what you’re doing. Take time for and care of yourself – something a lot of us are not good at doing because we’re always caring for others.”

How can we help?

“Practice social distancing. Take care of each other and we will get through this.”

FRAN DORANDO STRONG - BACK AS A BUCKEYE

Fran Dorando Strong graduated from Ohio State in 1994 with her degree in nursing and was a four-year letterwinner for the Buckeyes in field hockey from 1990-93. A team captain in 1992 and 1993, Dorando Strong was a second-team All-Big Ten selection in those seasons and capped her senior year by being selected to the North-South Senior All-Star Game. She is one of just eight players to earn All-Region honors three times in her career, garnering second team All-West Region accolades by the National Field Hockey Coaches Association in 1991, 1992 and 1993.

Powered by passion.

Passion: It's not merely the spark that lights the flame — it's also the fuel that feeds the fire. Passion is at the very heart of motivation, while a challenging spirit fosters innovation. At Honda, we believe both are necessary for a team to succeed. That's why, for more than 40 years, we've been proud to support those who lead with determination, who view challenges as opportunities and who follow their passions.

OHIO STADIUM

The 2020 football season will be the 99th season that Ohio State will play its home games in one of the most iconic, venerable and great stadiums in college football: Ohio Stadium. Ground was broken for its construction on Aug. 3, 1921 and 14 months, and just over $1.5 million in construction costs later, Ohio Stadium was completed. More than $1 million of that cost was pledged by proud and dedicated Ohio State football fans.

Ohio State boasts the second highest winning percentage at Ohio Stadium nationally among schools that have played 500-or-more games in their current stadium. Ohio State has a 451-112-20 all-time record in Ohio Stadium for a winning percentage of .790.
